SFA RISK DISCLOSURE STATEMENT

FORM 13

SECURITIES AND FUTURES ACT 2001 (ACT 42 OF 2001)

SECURITIES AND FUTURES (LICENSING AND CONDUCT OF BUSINESS) REGULATION 2002

RISK DISCLOSURE STATEMENT REQUIRED TO BE FURNISHED UNDER SECTION 128(1) AND TO BE KEPT UNDER REGULATION 39 (2) (c) BY THE HOLDER OF A CAPITAL MARKETS SERVICES LICENCE TO TRADE IN FUTURES CONTRACTS OR LEVERAGED FOREIGN EXCHANGE CONTRACTS

1. This statement is provided to you in accordance with section 128 (1) of the Securities and Futures Act 2001.
2. This statement does not disclose all of the risks and other significant aspects of trading in futures, options and leveraged foreign exchange. In light of the risks, you should undertake such transactions only if you understand the nature of the contracts (and contractual relationships) into which you are entering and the extent of your exposure to risk. Trading in futures, options and leveraged foreign exchange may not be suitable for many members of the public. You should carefully consider whether such trading is appropriate for you in the light of your experience, objectives, financial resources and other relevant circumstances. In considering whether to trade, you should be aware of the following:

(a) Futures and Leveraged Foreign Exchange Trading

(i) Effect of 'Leverage' or 'Gearing'

Transactions in futures and leveraged foreign exchange carry a high degree of risk. The amount of initial margin is small relative to the value of the futures contract or leveraged foreign exchange transaction so that the transaction is highly 'leverage' or 'geared'. A relatively small market movement will have a proportionately larger impact on the funds you have deposited or will have to deposit: this may work against you as well as for you. You may sustain a total loss of initial margin funds and any additional funds deposited with the firm to maintain your position. If the market moves against your position or margin levels are increased, you may be called upon to pay substantial additional funds on short notice in order to maintain your position. If you fail to comply with a request for additional funds within the time prescribed, your position may be liquidated at a loss and you will be liable for any resulting deficit in your account.

(ii) Risk-Reducing Orders or Strategies

The placing of certain orders (e.g. 'stop-loss' orders, where permitted under local law, or 'stop-limit' orders) which are intended to limit losses to certain amounts may not be effective because market conditions may make it impossible to execute such orders. At times, it is also difficult or impossible to liquidate a position without incurring substantial losses. Strategies using combinations of positions, such as 'spread' and 'straddle' positions may be as risky as taking simple 'long' or 'short' positions.

(b) Options

Variable Degree of Risk

Transactions in options carry a high degree risk. Purchasers and sellers of options should familiarize themselves with the type of option (i.e. put or call) which they contemplate trading and the associated risks. You should calculate the extent to which the value of the options would have to increase for your position to become profitable, taking into account the premium paid and all transaction costs.

The purchaser of options may offset its position by trading in the market or exercise the options or allow the options to expire. The exercise of an option results either in a cash settlement or in the purchaser acquiring or delivering the underlying interest. If the option is on a futures contract or leveraged foreign exchange transaction, the purchaser will have to acquire a futures or a leveraged foreign exchange position, as the case may be, with associated liabilities for margin (see the section on Futures and Leveraged Foreign Exchange Trading above). If the purchased options expire worthless, you will suffer a total loss of your investment which will consist of the option premium paid plus transaction costs. If you are contemplating purchasing deep-out-of-the-money options, you should be aware that, ordinarily, the chance of such options becoming profitable is remote.

Selling ('writing' or 'granting') an option generally entails considerably greater risk than purchasing options. Although the premium received by the seller is fixed, the seller may sustain a loss well in excess of the amount of premium received. The seller will be liable to deposit additional margin to maintain the position if the market moves unfavourably. The seller will also be exposed to the risk of the purchaser exercising the option and the seller will be obligated to either settle the option in cash or to acquire or deliver the underlying interest. If the option is on a futures contract or leveraged foreign exchange transaction, the seller will acquire a futures or a leveraged foreign exchange position, as the case may be, with associated liabilities for margin (see the section on Futures and Leveraged Foreign Exchange Trading above). If the option is 'covered' by the seller holding a corresponding position in the underlying futures contract, leveraged foreign exchange transaction or another option, the risk may be reduced. If the option is not covered, the risk of loss can be unlimited.

Certain exchanges in some jurisdictions permit deferred payment of the option premium, limiting the liability of the purchaser to margin payments not exceeding the amount of the premium. The purchaser is still subjected to the risk of losing the premium and transaction costs. When the option is exercised or expires, the purchaser is responsible for any unpaid premium outstanding at that time.

(c) Additional Risks Common to Futures, Options and Leveraged Foreign Exchange Trading

(i) Terms and Conditions of Contracts

You should ask the firm with which you conduct your transactions, the terms and conditions of the specific futures contract, option or leveraged foreign exchange transaction which you are trading and the associated obligations (e.g. the circumstances under which you may become obligated to make or take delivery of the underlying interest of a futures contract or a leveraged foreign exchange transaction and, in respect of options, expiration dates and restrictions on the time for exercise). Under certain circumstances, the specifications of outstanding contracts (including the exercise price of an option) may be modified by the exchange or clearing house to reflect changes in the underlying interest.

(ii) Suspension or Restriction of Trading and Pricing Relationships

Market conditions (e.g. illiquidity) and/or the operation of the rules of certain markets (e.g. the suspension of trading in any contract or contract month because of price limits or 'circuit breakers') may increase the risk of loss by making it difficult or impossible to effect transactions or liquidate/offset positions. If you have sold options, this may increase the risk of loss.

Further, normal pricing relationships between the underlying interest and the futures contract, and the underlying interest and the option may not exist. This can occur when, for example, the futures contract underlying the option is subject to price limits while the option is not. The absence of an underlying reference price may make it difficult to judge 'fair' value.

(iii) Deposited Cash and Property

You should familiarize yourself with the protection accorded to any money or other property which you deposit for domestic and foreign transactions, particularly in the event of a firm's insolvency or bankruptcy. The extent to which you may recover your money or property may be governed by specific legislation or local rules. In some jurisdictions, property which had been specially identifiable as your own will be pro-rated in the same manner as cash for purposes of distribution in the event of a shortfall.

(d) Commission and Other Charges

Before you begin to trade, you should obtain a clear explanation of all commissions, fees and other charges for which you will be liable. These charges will affect your net profit (if any) or increase your loss.

(e) Transactions in Other Jurisdictions

Transactions on markets in other jurisdictions, including markets formally linked to a domestic market, may expose you to additional risk. Such markets may be subject to regulation which may offer different or diminished investor protection. Before you trade, you should enquire about any rules relevant to your particular transactions. Your local regulatory authority will be unable to compel the enforcement of the rules of regulatory authorities or markets in other jurisdictions where your transactions have been effected. You should ask the firm with which you conduct your transactions for details about the types of redress available in both your home jurisdiction and other relevant jurisdictions before you start to trade.

(f) Currency Risk

The profit or loss in transactions in foreign currency-denominated futures and options contracts (whether they are traded in your own or another jurisdiction) will be affected by fluctuations in currency rates where there is a need to convert from the currency denomination of the contract to another currency.

(g) Trading Facilities

Most open-outcry and electronic trading facilities are supported by computer-based component systems for the order-routing, execution, matching, registration or clearing of trades. As with all facilities and systems, they are vulnerable to temporary disruption or failure. Your ability to recover certain losses may be subject to limits on liability imposed by the system provider, the market, the clearing house and/or member firms. Such limits may vary: you should ask the firm with which you conduct your transactions for details in this respect.

(h) Electronic Trading

Trading on an electronic trading system may differ not only from trading in an open-outcry market but also from trading on other electronic trading systems. If you undertake transactions on an electronic trading system, you will be exposed to risks associated with the system including the failure of hardware and software. The result of any system failure may be that your order is either not executed according to your instructions or is not executed at all.

(i) Off-Exchange Transaction

In some jurisdictions, firms are permitted to effect off-exchange transactions. The firm with which you conduct your transactions may be acting as your counterparty to the transaction. It may be difficult or impossible to liquidate an existing position, to assess the value, to determine a fair price or to assess the exposure to risk. For these reasons, these transactions may involve increased risks. Off-exchange transactions may be less regulated or subjected to a separate regulatory regime. Before you undertake such transactions, you should familiarize yourself with applicable rules and attendant risks.

Schedule 5

GLOBEX® RISK DISCLOSURE STATEMENT

GLOBEX® CUSTOMER INFORMATION AND RISK DISCLOSURE STATEMENT

The rules of the exchanges that will be participating in GLOBEX® trading require that we provide you with this GLOBEX® Customer information and Risk Disclosure Statement prior to accepting orders for your account. If you have any questions, please contact your Financial advisor.

GLOBEX is a world-wide automated order entry and matching system for futures and options. It is not a regulated futures exchange. Participating U.S. and foreign exchanges will list their contracts for trading on the system. Each exchange that lists futures and options for trading through GLOBEX will have sole control to determine the hours that the instruments may be traded and the rules that will apply to such trading, subject to review by the relevant regulatory authority. Before trading through GLOBEX, you should understand that certain features of GLOBEX make trading through the system different than pit trading and that such differences may affect order entry. The following paragraphs highlight some of these features. For further explanation, you should confer with your brokerage firm.

ORDERS MATCHED ELECTRONICALLY

Orders entered through GLOBEX will not be executed on the floor of an exchange in trading pit. Such orders will be electronically matched.

Risk Factor: Possible System Failure

GLOBEX has been designed to provide an efficient and dependable system for entering and matching orders. It includes backup facilities that will enable the system to continue operations through certain types of system failure. However, as with any automated system, it is possible that service could be interrupted by a system failure. In that event, depending on the type of failure, it may not be possible, for some period of time, to enter new orders, execute existing orders or to cancel orders that were previously entered.

Risk Factor: Limitation of Liability

Each participating exchange has adopted provisions that limit the liability of the exchange, the GLOBEX Joint Venture, L.P., and others. These provisions limit the amount of damages that you can collect, if any. The text of these provisions is set forth at the end of this Statement.

TRADING SESSIONS

Participating exchanges may have trading sessions in addition to their GLOBEX Trading Session. For U.S. exchanges which do not have Night Trading Hours ("NTH"), the Trading Day shall consist of two trading sessions beginning with the Electronic Trading Hours ("ETH" or "GLOBEX") Session and ending with the Regular Trading Hours ("RTH") Session. If a U.S. exchange has Night Trading Hours, the Trading Day will consist of three Trading Sessions beginning with the Night Trading Hours Session followed by the Electronic Trading Hours Session and ending with the Regular Trading Hours Session.

The settlement prices shall be determined based on the close of the RTH Session. You should be aware that not all contracts that are listed during RTH will be listed for trading through GLOBEX. Also, not necessarily all options months and strike prices that are listed during RTH will be listed for trading through GLOBEX. For further information on the trading sessions and contracts offered by participating exchanges, you should confer with your brokerage firm.

SINGLE PRICE OPENING

GLOBEX will calculate an opening price by finding an equilibrium based on all bids and offers entered into the system prior to the opening. Orders entered prior to the open may or may not be executed on the open.

Risk Factor: For a brief period prior to the open, orders entered into the system for execution at the opening may not be cancelled.

ORDER TYPES

The GLOBEX system will not accept orders (such as market orders) that do not specify a limit price. A customer may, however, obtain the effect of a market order by specifying a limit price that betters the current market price. Such a "price or better" order will be filled against standing orders in the system, at the price of the standing orders, until the customer's order is filled or his limit price is reached.

The GLOBEX system will not accept contingency orders including MIT and STOP orders. Unless otherwise prohibited by exchange rules, a firm may accept contingency orders from customers. In such cases, the orders will be handled manually by a terminal operator entering a limit order (or series of limit orders) when the contingent event occurs. For example, in the case of a stop order, once the stop has been elected the terminal operator would enter a limit order (or series of limit orders) until the order is completely filled.

Risk Factor: There is no guarantee that a “price or better” order will be filled, particularly if a previously entered “price of better” order was filled against the standing orders. Further, if the customer fails to specify a limit on a contingent order there is not guarantee that the order will be filled at a price comparable to the contingency price.

ORDER PRIORITY

GLOBEX will match orders based first on price and second on time of entry, with orders at the same price being matched so that the order received first at the host computer is matched first.

Risk Factor: In the event of a GLOBEX host computer failure, all orders that were previously entered into the system will lose their time priority. Each firm will be responsible to re-enter the orders, at which time matching will be based on price and the time that the orders were re-entered to the host.

ORDER PRESUMPTIONS

Unless the customer and broker agree otherwise, it will be presumed that all orders other than limit orders are being entered for the NTH and/or RTH Sessions rather than the ETH Session.

A limit order that does not contain a Trading Session designation will be cancelled if not filled during the Session in which it was received or, if it was received between Trading Sessions, during the next Session. A limit order may specify one of the following Trading Session designations:

- (a) NTH only - the order will be cancelled if not filled during that Night Trading Session.
- (b) ETH only - the order will be cancelled if not filled during that GLOBEX Trading Sessions.
- (c) RTH only - the order will be cancelled if not filled during that RTH Session.
- (d) Cancel after RTH - if the order is received during Electronic Trading Hours, it is available for execution during that GLOBEX Session and the immediately following RTH Session. If the order is received after the close of a GLOBEX Session, the order is available for execution during the next RTH Session. In either case, the order is cancelled if not filled by the end of the RTH Session.

An Open or Good-Till-Cancelled (“GTC”) limit order will, in the absence of a specific designation limiting its scope, remain in force during NTH, ETH and RTH Sessions until executed or cancelled. An open limit order may be restricted by including one of the following designations:

- (a) NTH/Open - the order will remain in force during Night Sessions only until executed or cancelled.
- (b) ETH/Open - the order will remain in force during GLOBEX Sessions only until executed or cancelled.
- (c) RTH/Open - the order will remain in force during RTH Sessions only until executed or cancelled.

CONTROLLING LAW

Trade execution for all contracts listed by U.S. exchanges will be conducted in the United States, and the rights and liabilities growing out of such execution are subject to U.S. law. Trade execution of instruments listed on GLOBEX by non-U.S. exchanges are subject to the law of the country of the listing exchange.

EXCHANGE RULES

You should be aware that trading an exchange’s contracts through GLOBEX is subject to the rules and regulations of that exchange, including the following provision adopted by each U.S. participating exchange:

LIMITATION OF LIABILITY-EXCEPT AS PROVIDED IN THE “GLOBEX CONTROL CENTER LIMITATION OF LIABILITY” PROVISION, AND EXCEPT IN INSTANCES WHERE THERE HAS BEEN A FINDING OF WILLFUL OR WANTON MISCONDUCT, IN WHICH CASE THE PARTY FOUND TO HAVE ENGAGED IN SUCH CONDUCT CANNOT AVAIL INSELF OF THE PROTECTIONS IN THIS PROVISION, NEITHER THE EXCHANGE INCLUDING ITS SUBSIDIARIES, AFFILIATES AND PARTNERSHIPS OF WHICH IT IS A PARTNER, ITS ASSOCIATED CLEARING ENTITY, J.V. SERVICES OR FACILITIES USED TO SUPPORT THE

GLOBEX SYSTEM. THE FOREGOING SHALL APPLY REGARDLESS OF WHETHER A CLAIM ARISES IN CONTRACT, TORT, NEGLIGENCE, STRICT LIABILITY OR OTHERWISE. THE FOREGOING SHALL NOT LIMIT THE LIABILITY OF

ANY MEMBER, CLEARING MEMBER, OTHER PERSON ACTING AS AGENT IN CAUSING ORDERS OF OTHERS TO BE ENTERED INTO THE GLOBEX SYSTEM OR ANY OF THEIR RESPECTIVE OFFICERS, DIRECTORS OR EMPLOYEES FOR ANY ACT, INCIDENT, OR OCCURRENCE WITHIN THEIR CONTROL.

TRADING OF DERIVATIVES ON BURSA MALAYSIA DERIVATIVES BERHAD (BURSA)

1. The capital control measures introduced by the Malaysian government apply to all non-residents. One of these measures require all ringgit profits generated from trading on all Malaysian futures exchanges to be kept in Malaysia for one year before they can be remitted overseas. However, a recent concession by the Malaysian authorities, allows non-residents to withdraw such trading profits including any excess margin deposit, provided the trading is carried out through Designated External Account (DEA) opened solely for the purpose of trading in derivatives on these Exchanges.
2. The procedures require the Company to open a DEA with a Malaysia bank and also with the Company's Malaysian broker, to facilitate my/our trading of derivatives on BURSA. My/our cash deposits with the Company for trades on BURSA will be remitted to the Company's DEA with the Malaysian bank and converted to MYR for use as margin deposit for the trades. As explained above, the Malaysian foreign exchange concession rule allows any profits and excess MYR deposit over and above that required for margin purposes to be converted to foreign currency and repatriated.
3. Any foreign exchange differences resulting from currency conversions for the inward and outward remittances will be for my/our accounts.
4. I/We am/are to be bound by any future changes in Malaysian foreign exchange rules and regulations affecting derivatives trades and customers' cash deposits held in the DEA.

Schedule 9
COMMODITY TRADING ACT
(CHAPTER 48A)

COMMODITY TRADING REGULATIONS

RISK DISCLOSURE STATEMENT REQUIRED TO BE FURNISHED BY A COMMODITY BROKER OR SPOT COMMODITY BROKER

1. This statement is provided to you in accordance with section 32 (1) of the Commodity Trading Act.
2. The intention of this statement is to inform you that the risk of loss in trading in commodity contracts and in spot commodity contracts can be substantial. You should therefore carefully consider whether such trading is suitable for you in light of your financial condition.
3. In considering whether to trade, you should be aware of the following:
 - (a) Margin: You may sustain a total loss of the initial margin and any additional margins that you deposit to establish a position or maintain positions in the commodity market or spot commodity market. If the market moves against your positions, you may be called upon to deposit a substantial amount of additional margins, on short notice, in order to maintain your positions. If you do not provide the required margins within the prescribed time, your positions may be liquidated at a loss, and you will be liable for any resulting deficit in your account.
 - (b) Liquidation of position: Under certain market conditions, you may find it difficult or impossible to liquidate a position.
 - (c) Contingent orders: Placing contingent orders, such as “stop-loss” or “stop-limit” order, will not necessarily limit your losses to the intended amounts, since market conditions may make it impossible to execute such orders.
 - (d) “Spread” position: A “spread” position may not be less risky than a simple “long” or “short” position.
 - (e) Leverage: The high degree of leverage that is often obtainable, trading in commodity contracts and spot commodity trading because of the small margin requirements can work against you as well as for you. The use of leverage can lead to large losses as well as gains.
 - (f) Foreign markets transactions: Funds placed with a commodity broker or spot commodity broker for the purpose of participating in foreign markets, such as New York Mercantile Exchange or Chicago Board of Trade transactions, may not enjoy the same level of protection as funds placed in commodity markets located in Singapore.
4. This brief statement cannot disclose all the risks and other significant aspects of the commodity market. You should therefore carefully study trading in commodity contracts and spot commodity trading before you trade.

You may at any time at your discretion refuse to execute any such instructions or any part thereof without incurring any responsibility or liability to the Customer for loss, liability or expense arising out of such refusal.

ADDITIONAL RISK DISCLOSURE

32. The risks disclosed in the risk disclosure statement prescribed under the Securities and Futures Act or its Regulations with respect to trading in futures contracts and leveraged foreign exchange contracts (which is provided separately to the Customer) will generally also apply to over-the-counter commodity trading in any form (and whether involving physical settlement or cash settlement) as they would to any financial transactions.

As an additional cautionary note in order to ensure that the Customer invest or trade in commodities only on a fully informed basis, please be reminded that over-the-counter commodity transactions, like other financial transactions, involve a variety of significant risks.

The specific risks presented by a particular transaction ("Transaction") necessarily depend upon the terms of the transaction and the Customer's circumstances. In general, however, all Transactions involve some combination of market risk, credit risk, funding risk and operational risk.

Market risk is the risk that the value of a Transaction will be adversely affected by fluctuations in the level or volatility of or correlation or relationship between one or more market prices, rates or indices or other market factors or by illiquidity in the market for the relevant Transaction or in a related market. In short that the value of the Transaction or the underlying commodity can go down as well as up.

Credit risk is the risk that a counterparty (including the Company) may fail to perform its obligations to the Customer when due.

Funding risk is the risk that, as a result of mismatches or delays in the timing of cash flows due from or to the Company in Transactions or related hedging, trading, collateral or other transactions, the Customer or a relevant counter-party will not have adequate cash available to fund current obligations.

Operational risk is the risk of loss to the Customer arising from inadequacies in, or failures by the Customer in, monitoring and/or quantifying the risks and contractual obligations associated with the Transactions the Customer enter into, for recording and valuing the Transactions, or for detecting human error, systems failure or management failure.

There may be other significant risks that the Customer should consider based on the terms of a specific Transaction the Customer enters into. Highly customized Transactions in particular may increase liquidity risk and introduce other significant risk factors of a complex character.

Highly leveraged transactions may experience substantial gains or losses in value as a result of relatively small changes in the value or level of an underlying or related market factor. If the Customer intends to hedge a Transaction the Customer enters into, there is a risk that that may not be possible.

In evaluating the risks and contractual obligations associated with a particular Transaction, the Customer should also consider that an over-the-counter bi-lateral Transaction may be modified or terminated only by mutual consent and subject to agreement on individually negotiated terms. Accordingly, it may not be possible for the Customer to modify, terminate or offset its obligations or its exposure to the risks associated with a Transaction prior to its agreed termination or settlement date.

This document does not purport to disclose all of the risks and other material considerations associated with Transactions the Customer may enter into. The Customer specifically should not take the general disclosure in this document as business, legal, tax or accounting or other advice or as modifying applicable law.

If the customer is in any doubt about an actual or proposed transaction, the customer should consult its own business, legal, tax, accounting and other advisers with respect to the transaction and in all cases the customer should refrain from entering into any transaction with or through the company unless the customer have fully understood the terms and risks of the transaction, including the extent of its potential risk of loss and is willing and able to sustain such loss.

GOVERNING LAWS/THIRD PARTY BENEFICIARIES/ETC

33. This Agreement and its enforcement shall be governed by the laws of the Republic of Singapore without reference to choice of law doctrines. The Customer hereby submits to the non-exclusive jurisdiction of the Singapore courts. The uniform law on the international sale of goods shall not apply to such contract and transactions.
34. In case of conflict or any inconsistency between the terms and conditions herein and those contained in any other Agreements that the Customer has signed, the terms and conditions herein shall prevail.
35. a) If the Customer is an incorporated company, any change in its constitution by amalgamation consolidation or otherwise shall not affect or determine its liability under this Agreement.

b) If the Customer is a firm, any change in its constitution by retirement, expulsion, death or admission of any partner or partners amalgamation or otherwise shall not affect its liability under this Agreement.
36. This Agreement is being entered into solely for the benefit of the parties to the Agreement. It may not be relied upon by any other person as the basis for any claim or dispute against any of the parties to this Agreement with respect to such other person.
37. The Customer hereby authorises you to deposit the Customer's monies and/or any other assets denominated in a foreign currency with a custodian outside Singapore which is licensed, registered or authorised to act as a custodian or to conduct banking business in the country or territory where the account is maintained by you.

TERMS AND CONDITIONS
APPLICABLE TO LME RELATED CONTRACTS

Please Read The Terms And Conditions Below For Our Entering Into London Metal Exchange ("LME") Related Contracts With You.

1. SCOPE

1.1 APPLICATION

The clauses in this Appendix apply to LME related contracts ("LME Contracts") to be entered into from time to time between ourselves as your agent broker where permitted of us as a non-LME member and otherwise on an OTC principal to principal basis as set out below.

1.2 SUPPLEMENTAL EFFECT OF THIS APPENDIX

Please note that the terms and conditions in this Appendix are intended to be read in conjunction with and as supplementary to the terms of the Customer Agreement – the "Agreement" (collectively the "Terms") executed by you. Your LME Contracts shall therefore be subject to the Terms and not merely the clauses in this Appendix. Accordingly you agree to these terms and conditions forming part of the terms of the Customer Agreement executed by you as if the transactions to be covered under such Agreement were also to include our entering into LME Contracts with you.

2. SPECIFIC TERMS FOR LME CONTRACTS

We, UOB Bullion & Futures Limited, are only agreeable to enter into LME Contracts with you, the "Customer", from time to time on the following terms:

2.1 RISK DISCLOSURE:

(i) Relationship Between Parties

The relationship between you and us for LME Contracts is as described in these Terms.

Neither that relationship, nor the services we may provide for any other transaction with or for you nor any other matter, will give rise to any fiduciary or equitable duties or duties as an adviser on our part.

The relationship between you and us with respect to a concluded LME Contract (the "Transaction") is intended to be, in all cases where it is not possible or permitted of us (as between ourselves) to effect as your agent with or through an LME member the Transaction as an LME registered transaction or contract, a bi-lateral principal to principal transaction and strictly on a "buyer beware" basis but with us expressly intended to be riskless principal in the transaction to you in the sense that (i) our obligation to you with respect any concluded LME Contract is limited only to passing on to you the benefit of such rights as we may ourselves actually have to enforce under a corresponding LME Market Contract (as the expression is defined below); and (ii) our obligation to perform on any LME Market Contract is dependent upon your performance of your obligations under the corresponding LME Contract and hence your liability to indemnify and keep us harmless against any default in your performance leading to a default of our performance. Notwithstanding (ii) in the preceding sentence, we are entitled where we determine in good faith the same to be in our interest to proceed with performing under a corresponding LME Market Contract notwithstanding your default under the relevant LME contract without prejudice to our right to damages and indemnity from you. Where it is possible or permitted of us as between ourselves to effect as your agent with or through an LME member the Transaction as an LME registered transaction or contract, it will be deemed so effected as between ourselves.

Where it is not possible or permitted of us as between ourselves to effect as your agent with or through an LME member the Transaction as an LME registered transaction or contract, the following provisions also apply:

(ii) Conflicts Of Interest And Duty

Our only obligation with respect any Transaction is as riskless principal to you and therefore that we will also conclude in good faith a corresponding LME Market Contract (as the expression is defined below).

As a riskless principal, we are not intended to incur any loss or damage for having effected a corresponding LME Market Contract and as such and amongst other things:

(a) In the event of severe market disruption and/or price volatilities which may result or may have resulted in the current market value of a commodity which is the subject matter of a corresponding LME Market Contract falling to what our counter-party may regard as an unacceptable level giving rise to their right to do any of the following with respect to the corresponding LME Market Contract

- (1) to close out the corresponding LME Market Contract;
- (2) to require an immediate delivery of additional margin;

then in such event we shall have corresponding rights under the LME Contract with you.

(b) You also acknowledge that business on the LME may from time to time be suspended or restricted in the interests of, inter alia, maintaining a fair and orderly market. In such circumstances we may be unable to close out the corresponding LME Market Contract and you acknowledge that in such event you shall correspondingly have no right to close out the LME Contract with us.

(c) In the event that we are required to effect payment or delivery of any relevant warrant(s) under the corresponding LME Contract we shall correspondingly be entitled to payment/warrant(s) delivery from you under the corresponding Transaction to put us in funds/warrant(s) in due time to onward effect payment/delivery under the corresponding LME Contract. As such your right to the return of any payment/warrant(s) delivery made to us is dependent on our actual receipt of any corresponding return of payment/warrant(s) from our counter-party under the corresponding LME Market Contract.

Without prejudice to the above, whilst we may charge you a commission (as agreed between us from time to time) for entering into an LME Contract with you, you acknowledge that we do so only after going into the market to secure a corresponding LME registered contract for ourselves.

The price we conclude the LME Contract will be the same as the price of the corresponding LME registered Contract (such corresponding LME registered contract to be hereafter referred to as the "LME Market Contract").

(iii) Non-LME Member

You acknowledge that we are not a member of the London Metal Exchange and therefore that the LME Contract concluded between us while related and corresponding to an LME Market Contract which we conclude on a back to back basis for our own account is not a contract which is registered with or concluded on the LME or by an LME broker/member.

You also acknowledge that as a non-LME member it is incumbent on us to conclude corresponding LME Market Contracts with an LME member and as such the holding of any underlying commodity or warrant in respect thereof will necessarily be effected through such LME member or its custodian.

You further acknowledge and agree that holding of any commodity or documents of title to commodities which you have acquired from us pursuant to an LME Contract concluded with us or intend to effect delivery with respect to will be procured by us to be held by such LME member or its custodian and in accordance with their terms for such holding. The same will apply with respect to any and all commodity delivery obligation which we are obliged to discharge under a relevant corresponding LME Market Contract which we conclude held to delivery/settlement date.

Accordingly you agree that so long as we exercise good faith:-

(i) in the selection of such LME member or its custodian for holding of any commodity or documents of title to commodities which you have acquired from us pursuant to an LME Contract concluded with us or intend to effect delivery with respect to; and

- (ii) in agreeing respectively to such LME member and/or its sub-custodian's terms respectively for the delivery of commodities and/or for the holding of any commodity or documents of title to commodities which you have acquired from us pursuant to an LME Contract concluded with us or intend to effect delivery with respect to as between ourselves, we are intended to have and shall have no liability whatsoever with respect to the delivery obligations under any corresponding LME Contract or for any default on the part of the LME member or its sub-custodian and you shall ensure that you will take all actions as may be required and give us such authority as may be required to ensure that we may comply with and not be default of the terms for the delivery of commodities or their respectively sub-custody.

Without prejudice to the fore-going, the terms as set out in the attached document entitled "Delivery/Custodianship – LME Contract" shall apply to our holding or procuring the holding of any commodity or documents of title to commodities which you have acquired from us pursuant to an LME Contract concluded with us or intend to effect delivery with respect to.

2.2 NON-RELIANCE

Regardless of whether we may act as between ourselves as your broker agent or must act as riskless principal to you, you acknowledge and agree:

- (i) That we are not acting as your fiduciary or adviser in connection with any LME Contract entered into between you and ourselves;
- (ii) that you are acting for your own account and will make your own independent decisions about whether (a) to enter into any proposed Transaction; and (b) whether the Transactions and/or any proposed Transaction is appropriate or proper for you based on your own judgment and upon advice from such legal, tax, regulatory, accounting and/or other advisers as you deem necessary and appropriate;
- (iii) that although we will, in our absolute discretion in good faith, provide you with information on actual and potential Transactions, it is your responsibility to ask us for any explanations that you require in order for you and/or your advisers to assess the risks attached to any such transaction and its suitability for you;
- (iv) that information and explanations related to the terms and conditions of any Transaction shall not be considered investment advice or a recommendation to enter into any transaction;
- (v) that you have not and shall not rely on any communication (written or oral) from us as legal, tax, regulatory or accounting advice, nor (except as provided for under the next paragraph below) as investment or financial or other advice;
- (vi) that we are not giving you advice on the merits of any LME Contract or any particular aspect of it unless, in relation to a particular potential or actual Transaction, we have expressly acknowledged in writing that we are doing so; and that where such advice is given, it is subject to any agreed terms between us for the giving of such advice; and
- (vii) that no communication (written or oral) received from us, whether before a Transaction is entered into or before it is terminated or expires, shall be deemed to be an assurance, guarantee or opinion as to the anticipated results of any transaction.

Part A – Physical Delivery

You repeat this representation as of the time of entry into any Transaction relating to any commodity.

3. DELIVERY

3.1 Delivery: Delivery of any Warrant-based Commodity shall be effected by transfer of Warrants. In any other case where your Warrants are held in SWORD, and subject to contrary written agreement between you and us, transfer to you shall be deemed to occur at 10am London time on the prompt date applicable to the Transaction

- 3.3 Risk: The risk in any commodity bought by you will pass to you on delivery. Where a commodity is in your possession before the property in it has passed to you, you agree fully to preserve, or procure the full preservation of, its condition and make good any damage or deterioration that may occur, or fully compensate us for any such damage or deterioration.
- 3.4 Delivery Costs: Unless otherwise agreed in writing between us, any costs incurred by us in effecting physical delivery of any commodity (including, without limitation, costs in respect of collection, packaging, shipment, storage, warehousing or insurance) whether under or pursuant to the corresponding LME Market Contract or the Transaction shall be borne by you.
- 3.5 Place of Delivery: Any commodity which is required to be delivered physically by you to us will be delivered by you at your expense to such location as we may specify.
- 3.6 Where you intend to make delivery to us for onward delivery under the corresponding LME Market Contract of Warrants not already held by us or to our order in SWORD then we will require delivery in due time for us to comply with our delivery obligation under the corresponding LME Market Contract, being generally 5pm on the previous business day.

Part B – Custody

- 4.1 Commodities purchased by you: We may, from time to time, at your request but in our discretion, agree to hold on your behalf either ourselves or through a sub-custodian of our choice any commodity or documents of title to commodities which you have acquired from us pursuant to an LME Contract concluded with us (each a "Transaction").

Where we effect the holding ourselves, such commodity or documents will be segregated from any like commodity or documents in our ownership but otherwise will be subject to the same custody and insurance arrangements as our own property.

Where we effect the holding through a sub-custodian of our choice, our duty is only to secure from our sub-custodian an acknowledgement that such commodity or documents will be segregated from any like commodity or documents held for our proprietary account but otherwise will be subject to the same custody and insurance arrangements as our own property.

- 4.2 SWORD Warrants: Where a Warrant is capable of being held in SWORD we shall hold or arrange with a sub-custodian of our choice to hold, such a Warrant physically for you (or in the latter case for the benefit of a segregated customer account maintained with the sub-custodian distinctly from our own proprietary account with them) only for temporary periods. - 4.3 Collection of Warrants: Where you have Warrants which are in our physical possession or control and have authorised a person to collect Warrants from us, we shall not verify the identity of any person claiming to be so authorised, and we owe you no duties to operate any specific security procedures unless separately agreed in writing between you and us.

- 4.5 Liability: We shall have no liability for the neglect or default of any sub-custodian or with respect to any Warrant held by us for you through any sub-custodian so long as we had exercised good faith in the appointment of such sub-custodian.

- 4.6 Storage and Insurance: If you deposit commodities, documents of title to commodities, or other tangible assets with us or to our control as margin or otherwise, we reserve the right (but have no obligation) to insure them, to charge you and debit your account with the costs of storage and insurance either periodically or when we return the assets to you, and to refuse withdrawal until such costs have been paid. If we collect, deliver or hold commodities or other tangible assets on your behalf, we do so at your risk.

Without prejudice to the foregoing, you shall be solely responsible for the taking out of any insurance for the commodities and documents of title subject to the pursuant to the terms for holding hereunder.

5. HOLDING YOUR WARRANTS IN SWORD

- 5.1 Bailment: Where you do not have a SWORD Account we may hold Warrants on your behalf in SWORD either directly or through a sub-custodian. If we do so we act as bailee and owe you no fiduciary duty, and we do not undertake the responsibilities of a trustee or any other duties in relation to such Warrants not implied by the law of bailment for bare custody of such warrants.
- 5.2 Warrant lodgement: You consent for the purposes of the SWORD Regulations to us lodging or causing the lodgement of Warrants through a sub-custodian with the Depository and to our and/or our sub-custodian dealing with the Warrants on the terms of the SWORD Regulations. Where we have lodged or caused to be lodged through a sub-custodian a Warrant on your behalf, you represent and warrant to us that the Warrant and the commodity to which it relates are beneficially owned by you and free of encumbrances and that all requirements of the SWORD Regulations for lodgement are satisfied and authorise us in turn to make, as between ourselves and our sub-custodian, identical an representation and warranty. You shall accordingly indemnify and keep us harmless against any and all loss, claims and damage we may sustain referable to any breach of your representation and warranty or our corresponding breach of representation and warranty.
- 5.3 Warrant withdrawal: If you wish to withdraw Warrants which we are holding for you in SWORD, you will give us reasonable notice to enable us and our sub-custodian (where applicable) to comply with the SWORD Operating Procedures, and we shall not be responsible other than to take reasonable steps to comply with your request insofar as it is practicable.

Part C - Limitation Of Obligation

- (i) so long as you are not in breach of your obligations, we are obliged only to either onward communicate your instructions with respect to delivery or custody or to communicate materially identical instructions to the relevant LME member and/or its custodian but without any responsibility to assure or guarantee performance on their respective parts; and
- (ii) we are not in any event to be liable for any deficiency or breach in the performance of any obligation nor for the negligence or fraud of such LME member or its custodian.

Without prejudice to the foregoing, our obligation to effect any further communication or dealings with the LME member and/or its custodian shall cease following our communication of any instruction to either or both of them to effect delivery to you or your order which is not rejected by them. All contracts in the terms of an Exchange Contract made on LIFFE shall be subject to the Rules of LIFFE as from time to time in force. In respect of every contract made between us for allocation to another member specified by you; in the event that such other member accepts the allocation, we shall (without prejudice to any claim we may have for commission or other payment) upon such acceptance cease to be a party to the contract and shall have no obligation to you for its performance; and in the event that such other member declines to accept the allocation, we shall be entitled at our option to either to confirm the contract with you or to liquidate it by such sale, purchase, disposal or other transaction or cancellation as we may in our discretion determine, whether on the market, or by private contract, or by any other feasible method; and any balance resulting from such liquidation shall be promptly settled between us.

DELIVERY AND EXERCISE ALLOCATION METHOD

Where the clearing house for LIFFE contracts or an intermediate broker thereto does not specify a particular contract when making a delivery or exercise, we will allocate such delivery or exercise randomly or in some other manner that seems most equitable to us.

EXCLUSION OF LIABILITY

As a member of the LIFFE market, and pursuant to the Rules of LIFFE, we are required to include a provision dealing with exclusion of liability in our agreement with you.

The following provisions shall apply without prejudice to the generality of clause 19, 23 and 24 of our Customer Agreement with you.

LIFFE is obliged under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 to ensure that business conducted by means of its facilities is conducted in an orderly manner and so as to afford proper protection to investors. LIFFE wishes to draw to the attention of members and clients that, inter alia, business on the market may from time to time be suspended or restricted or the market may from time to time be closed for a temporary period or for such longer period as may be determined in accordance with the Rules including, without limitation, as a result of a decision taken under LIFFE Rule 4.15 or 4.16 on the occurrence of one or more events which require such action to be taken in the interests of, inter alia, maintaining a fair and orderly market. Any such action may result in our being unable, and through us, you and your customers (if any) being unable to enter into contracts in accordance with the Rules on the terms of Exchange Contracts either by means of contracts entered into on the market floor or through an ATS. Furthermore, we and you are your clients (if any) may from time to time be prevented from or hindered in entering into contracts in the terms of Exchange Contracts, or errors in orders or in contracts in the terms of Exchange Contracts may arise, as a result of a failure or malfunction of communications, or equipment, or market facilities, or the ATS central processing systems, or any other system supplied or operated by LIFFE or us or software supplied to you by us or to us by LIFFE or by LIFFE to you.

LIFFE further wishes to draw the following exclusion of liability to your attention. Unless otherwise expressly provided in the Rules or in any other agreement to which LIFFE is party, LIFFE shall not be liable to any member or client for loss (including any indirect or consequential loss including, without limitation, loss of profit), damage, injury, or delay, whether direct or indirect, arising from any of the circumstances or occurrences referred to in LIFFE Rule 1.4.2 (a copy of which is published on euronext.liffe.com's website and will also be available to you by us on request) or from any act or omission of LIFFE, its officers, employees, agents or representatives under the Rules or pursuant to LIFFE's obligations under statute or from any breach of contract by or any negligence howsoever arising of LIFFE, its officers, employees, agents or representatives.

LIFFE CONNECT

As a member of LIFFE, we are required to ensure that you are aware that LIFFE has a number of powers which, if exercised, may impact upon our ability to submit an order after submission to the

LIFFE CONNECT Trading Host prior to execution. In addition to the powers already available to LIFFE (including those in relation to investor protection and proper markets), you should be aware that LIFFE may reject, cancel, and/or suspend your order for a number of reasons. Your attention is drawn to the fact that:

LIFFE has the power to suspend our (and thereby your) access following a single warning, and to terminate our (and thereby your) access under certain conditions;

LIFFE will cancel all outstanding orders on the default of a member; orders outside the price in force at the time may be rejected automatically by the Trading Host;

all orders (with the exception of GTC orders) will be cancelled automatically at Market Close or when the responsible trader logs out without having nominated a replacement responsible trader, whichever is the earlier;

all orders (including GTC orders) will be cancelled at close of business on the last Trading Day of the expiry month to which they relate; and all orders (with the exception of GTC orders) will be cancelled automatically if the Trading Host fails.

CHANGES TO AGREEMENT

Notwithstanding any previous agreement between us to the contrary, we now agree that a variation of these supplemental terms does not require your written agreement. Any modification that is necessitated by LIFFE, or a direct implementation of changes made by LIFFE over which we have no control, will come into effect immediately and without notice. Any modifications to these supplemental terms that are made by us that are not necessitated by LIFFE and not implementations of changes made by LIFFE will be made in accordance with clause 5 of the Customer Agreement.

ERROR CORRECTION

In our and your interests, LIFFE may from time to time sanction the making of contracts by us outside the pit in order to satisfy your order, where there has been an error in the execution of your order in the pit. Where a better price (an improvement) can be obtained, we will seek to secure and offer that improvement to you. However, you should note that where, in response to your order, we have bought or sold in accordance with the instruction in your order to buy or, as the case may be, to sell but have traded the wrong delivery/expiry month or wrong exercise price of the relevant contract, then we may in accordance with the LIFFE's Rules offset any loss arising from that trade against any improvement achieved for you in the course of correctly satisfying your order, thus offering you only the net improvement, if any.

ARBITRATION

Any dispute arising from or relating to this agreement, in so far as it relates to contracts made between us subject to the Rules of LIFFE, and any dispute arising from or relating to any such contract as aforesaid and hereunder shall, unless resolved between us, be referred to arbitration under the arbitration rules of LIFFE, or to such other organisation as LIFFE may direct before either of us resort to the jurisdiction of the courts (other than to obtain an injunction or an order for security for a claim).

GOVERNING LAW

All contracts in the terms of an Exchange Contract made on LIFFE shall be subject to and construed in accordance with English Law.

JURISDICTION

Subject to the Arbitration clause above, disputes arising from this agreement or from contracts made under this agreement shall be subject (for our benefit) to the exclusive jurisdiction of the English courts to which both parties irrevocably submit, provided that this shall not prevent us bringing an action in the courts of any other jurisdiction.
